Wills Seminar

at First United Church

TODAY - Sunday April 15th at 7 p.m.

Two professionals from Swift Current:

Jim Anderson, founding partner of Anderson & Co. , and Travis Cuthbert, financial planner and insurance agent, will be here to share their expertise on the legal and financial issues that we face at various stages of our lives.

This will be a great opportunity to ask questions and learn more about the opportunities and the concerns that we need to consider.

Spring Fundraiser Supper

A Five Week Introduction to

Buddhist Mindfulness Meditation

April 9- May 7 | 7:00- 8:45 pm in the Burnham Room

Practicing mindfulness is one way to gain a richer sense of being fully alive, and of gaining greater clarity, wisdom, freedom and joy in the process.

Come and learn the basic techniques of learning to pay attention to breath, to thoughts, to the body, to the emotions and to our walk through daily life.

The cost for this course is $75. Financial assistance is available for those who require it. Donations to the First United Church

Mission & Service fund are also welcomed.

To register, contact Staci Schaitel.

Crisis Support Line Now Open

In the wake of the Humboldt Bronco's bus accident, Morneau Shepell has launched a national crisis support line that is available to anyone in need of emotional support.

The crisis line can be reached at: 1.844.751.2133.

By calling the crisis line, individuals will receive crisis counselling support and/or referral to community resources. This resource is available to anyone and everyone, client or not.

Their website workhealthlife.com also features additional information and tips on coping with traumatic events.
